

Avian Influenza (Bird Flu) Public Information Meeting

February 9, 2015

~ Two Opportunities to Learn ~

9:00 am — 10:00 am

(longer if needed for question & answer period)

Nespelem Community Center
28 School Loop Rd.
Nespelem, WA

1:00 pm

Okanogon County
Commissioners Hearing Room
123 Fifth Avenue North, Room 150
Okanogon, Washington

Presenter: Dr. John Huntley, USDA APHIS Veterinary Services, Assistant District Director, District 6, (USDA) will give a presentation which will be followed by a discussion. All poultry producers or owners of backyard flocks are encouraged to attend. Learn what symptoms to look for and what you can do to protect susceptible species of birds. The Public, Agency and Department personnel, and anyone else interested in knowing more about the Avian Flu are invited to attend.

~ Information Provided ~

- What is Avian flu & Species Affected
 - Outbreak Locations
 - How Avian Influenza is Spread
- Steps to Take to Protect Your Commercial/Backyard Flocks
 - What to do for Biosecurity of Your Premises
 - What to do if You See or Suspect Sick Birds

For more information contact:

Linda McLean (509) 634-2304
ljmclean@wsu.edu
OR
Ann Fagerlie (509) 422-7245
afagerlie@wsu.edu

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication or program information or reasonable accommodation need to contact WSU Colville Reservation Extension at PO Box 150, 9 Methow St. Bldg. #888, Nespelem, WA 99155, (509)634-2304, ljmclean@wsu.edu at least two weeks prior to the event.

Provided by WSU Colville Reservation and Okanogon County Extension offices in collaboration with WSU Extension USDA APHIS PPQ Section 10007 Project RAIN2 Funding

Cooperating Agencies: Washington State University, U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA FRTEP Award #2013-41580-20796) and Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation, Colville Agency BIA, and Ferry County. Daniel L. Fagerlie, Project Director, fagerlie@wsu.edu Extension programs and employment are available to all without discrimination. Evidence of noncompliance may be reported to your local Extension office.